ABOUT JOANNE BAKER

Founder of The Mindset Mentor

Joanne Baker, is the founder of The Mindset Mentor, a Personal Development and Training company which is based in Melbourne, Australia. Her work as company leader, speaker, personal and business coach has resulted in her clients achieving outstanding results in a very short time.

Joanne attributes her success to taking personal responsibility for her life and direction. She is a firm believer in asking better questions to get better results. Joanne has overcome many obstacles to reach the level of success she now enjoys which she openly shares with her clients and the participants of her workshops.

Joanne is an engaging speaker whose interactive workshops and seminars are an inspirational experience for all. She also speaks to organizations on subjects ranging from leadership and team building to self esteem and life balance. Additionally, her one on one consultations prove to be life changing for every client she partners with. Joanne works with her clients to maximize their results while balancing their busy lives.

Joanne received her training through The Coaching Institute, Australia's Leading Provider of Life & Executive Coaching training and the Demartini Human Research & Education Institute. Joanne is an Advanced Practitioner of Coach Mastery, Trained Facilitator of The Demartini Method™, NLP Practitioner, Time Line Practitioner, Performance Coach and a Trainer of Coaching. She is a member of the International Coaching Federation and the Australian Board of Neuro Linguistic Programming.

Since beginning her Personal Development career in 2006, Joanne has been improving the quality of life and enhancing performance for people in all walks of life.
